President's Message

As you read this the quilt show is over. As I write this, it's 3 weeks away. That said, we're expecting a great show with many good leaders under Kathleen Bond. They've all put a huge amount of work into bringing it all together and deserve a big thank you from all.

The Board spent some time on reviewing the upcoming budget for 2017-18. It will be presented at our June meeting to be approved by all our members. Carol Wright will be emailing to all the proposed budget just before our June meeting. Please look it over before the meeting and bring a copy with you. None will be available at the meeting. Some Board members also are sorting and shredding old financial files dating back to 2003-2007. Other old files are being assessed to see if we can dispose of them. Some of you long term members might like to get involved in that.

By this time I think you all know who our new officers are. Rosemary Carr, Kathleen Bond, Pat Gentner, and Carol Wright were installed at our meeting and will be taking over after the business meeting in July. Our party will start their reigns. We still need several positions filled for our new year in August. Job descriptions are available if you need more info on these jobs. Our revised job descriptions are finished and are available for your perusal on the Committees Page. Being a volunteer really opens up your world to new acquaintances and friends. Ask anyone who's been there.

For those in current positions, and new positions, Karen Adams is having a Transition Meeting at her beautiful house, on Jun 14th 10AM, to include lunch.

Don't forget to see the quilts at the Adult Center on Rosser St. I get nice comments on them frequently when I play duplicate bridge there. One day I heard someone commenting on how beautiful they are and asked the receptionist if any were for sale. She said no, but naturally I popped in and said they will be. We are putting together a booklet for quilts our members are willing to sell. Carolyn Edwards is working on that.

TBO Forms

The following forms are available on-line or at the meeting from the person noted below.

Membership Applications

Reimbursement Forms

(for committee members that need to be reimbursed for purchases made for the guild)

Carol Wright, Treasurer

Membership renewals are pouring in. This year we have 137 members. We hope to do that or better next year. It's a big plus to be in our directory, but that won't happen if you don't get in your $30 in by our June meeting. You can send your check to Doris Robak if you can't be there.

Don't pass up our Birthday Party in July! Shirley Pichoff and committee are busy making arrangements and favors for that, and lunch is included. Sounds like fun! If you need to bring a guest, check with Shirley P. In July there will be Show and Tell, but no Birthday Raffle and no Company Store. June is business as usual with our speaker and 2 workshops. Please consider doing one of them.

Appreciation goes to all who are willing to be involved in keeping this guild as alive and great as it is. It takes a lot of energy and diligence on the part of many.

Pat Armstrong, TBQ President

In order to use St. Luke's Episcopal Church for our meeting place, we have been asked to bring nonperishable food items to donate to their food bank.

Please don't forget to bring an item or two. They are especially needed this time of year. Thank you!

Greetings, Everyone! We are celebrating Summer at the Adult Center! Woohoo! The yellow quilts are coming down on May 24th, and the patriotic quilts are going up! And it's a grand ol' collection! Three cheers for the red, white, and blue! Big, big THANK YOU's go to Janet Bailey, Cheryl Giovenco, Arlene Gordon, Jane Holland, Barbara Merkel, Sandy Mitchell, Paula Pilcher, Shirlee Smith and Sue Weishaupt for sharing their patriotic quilts. We love that you are jumping right into our activities! And when you stop to see the quilts at 1280 Rosser Street, check out Arlene Gordon's two quilts--they are FOR SALE! It's such a great collection, you will want to stop and salute!

Quilts For Sale!

We've mentioned more than once that visitors to the Adult Center have asked if any of the quilts were for sale. President Pat mentioned at the January meeting that works were under way to offer TBQ members' quilts for sale. If you are at all interested in selling any of your quilts, here's the deal. We don't have all the details finalized yet, but you need to be thinking about if you have any quilts for sale. A form will be placed on the website with the other 'forms'. You will need to attach a photograph. More details to follow...

Chamber of Commerce Exhibit

Come and enjoy the new display of Judith Ritner's Quilts at the Chamber of Commerce this month.

Quilts have been on display continuously since April 2009. This is a shared task between Thumb Butte Quilters' Guild and Mountain Top Quilters' Guild.
